December 2009

▶ Steering Committee Meeting

◦ Draft Agenda

- Nonpoint source hydrology: precipitation, land use, stream flow, contaminants, and the concept of mass loadings
- Estimating contaminant loads by analyzing historical data: sampling, probability and distributions (with respect to load duration curves (LDC)), what historical data can tell you and what it doesn't
- Understanding the source-stressor-impact-impairment conceptual model
- Modeling – GIS and spatially explicit models
- Evaluating possible solutions through management scenario analysis models

▶ Technical Advisory Group Meeting

- Consists of state and federal agencies
- AgriLife will get them on board with the Steering Committee and ask for specific help on behalf of the stakeholders

January 2010

- ▶ Steering Committee Meeting
  - Presentation and discussion of Load Duration Curves (LDCs)
  - Presentation and discussion of approximate load reductions needed to meet water quality goals
  - Action will be taken on LDC, goals and load reductions at the next Steering Committee Meeting
  - Discussion of areas of impairment & possible sources within watershed

February 2010

- ▶ Lampasas River Watershed Tour
  - Day long tour of specific areas within watershed via charter bus
  - Schedule and agenda will be announced at December Steering Committee meeting
  - Tentative dates: Feb 16 -19
